An accredited graduate degree that works for you — with classes completely online.

Offering part-time enrollment to those who do not have a Bachelor's of Social Work degree, the online MSW is a convenient option for working professionals to pursue an accredited graduate degree.

UCF's online MSW prepares students to become practitioners who promote optimal well-being, human rights, and social and economic justice and focus on social change with individuals, families, groups and communities in diverse practice settings.

UCF Online MSW Advantages:

- No GRE required
- Cohort model for stronger peer support
- Graduates are eligible for a state licensure exam
- Hands-on field education placement
- Accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE)
- 7-week terms, one class per term
