Honors and Awards

Administrative Discretionary Increase

University of Central Florida. (2018).

Presented to the Dean of the College of Health and Public Affairs by the Chair of the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders in recognition of teaching, clinical and service contributions made over a three-year period.

Learning Institute for Elders (LIFE) - Richard Tucker Gerontology Applied Research Award Program University of Central Florida. (February 2017).

“Competitive grants are selected from specific projects submitted by individual professors. Gerontology Grants are selected from specific applied gerontology research projects submitted by UCF individual professors or graduate students, and our grant is for that specific program also”. <https://life.ucf.edu/>

Sponsored Research Effort

University of Central Florida. (2015-2016 & 2016-2017).

AG Bell Association for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing-Cochlear Implant Fellow East Carolina University; Greenville, NC. (July 2009-March 2010).

AG Bell is an association that “works globally to ensure that individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing can hear and talk” <https://www.agbell.org/Connect/AG-Bell-College-Scholarship-Program>. The program also provides scholarship opportunities to families, students and professionals. The scholarships are highly competitive and usually only available to 15% of those who apply. The AG Bell Cochlear Implant Fellow scholarship was a competitive National scholarship that awarded one scholarship to three selected Audiology graduate programs. The scholarship afforded me an opportunity to enhance my clinical knowledge and skills as well as community outreach by participating in the following:

- Adult and Pediatric Cochlear Implant Diagnostic Evaluations.
- Adult and Pediatric Family Counseling/Equipment Selection.
- Adult and Pediatric Cochlear Implant Activations/Mapping & Aural Rehab.
- Intraoperative Monitoring.
- Creation of Patient Resource Packet.
- Fundraising-Project EAR (Enhancement Through Auditory-oral Resources).
